Time Travel

Grades 4 to 6

Take your students on a trip back in time. Go behind the scenes of the North Vancouver Archives to experience the authenticity that only archival materials can offer. Students will discover what an archives is and how to use the rich resources that it offers. Working with original documents, students will use archival evidence to ask questions, explore continuity and change, and better understand the historical significance of the people and places in their community.

Location: Community History Centre, 3203 Institute Road
