IN YOUR CLASSROOM

Family Treasures

Grades 2 & 3

Photos and stories about the old days aren't just in museums! In this program students will search their homes for family photos and treasured items, while discovering what makes them special and the stories they tell. Guided by the Museum's educator students will learn to ask questions about the significance of the 'treasures' and present their findings. Together, students will explore some of the traditions, everyday experiences and major events that families share.

Location: In Your Classroom

Offered: Wednesday – Friday, mid-October to mid-November; mid-January to mid-April.

Time: THREE 60-minute in-class sessions presented by the Museum's History Interpreter.

Fee: $100

Booking Information:

At the time of booking: please advise if you have any special needs children and if you require an invoice.

All bookings are on first-come, first-served basis.

A waiting list will be compiled.

Two week's cancellation notice is required or a $40 fee will apply.
