Moodyville: Milltown to Mystery

Grades 4 and up

Learning history is doing history. Our Museum Educator will introduce your class to North Vancouver's once thriving community of Moodyville and guide them on an investigation of the unique stories behind this nationally significant mill-town. Working in groups, students will decipher old photographs and examine artifacts to reveal how natural resources and early immigration shaped this country.

Location: In your classroom

Offered: Wednesday – Friday afternoons, mid-October to mid-November; February to April

Time: One 90 minute in-class session presented by the Museum's History Interpreter.

Fee: $40

Booking Information:

At the time of booking: please advise if you have any special needs children and if you require an invoice.

All bookings are on first-come, first-served basis.

A waiting list will be compiled.

One week's cancellation notice is required or a $40 fee will apply.
