Give your students a head start on their history projects! An interpreter from the North Vancouver Museum will guide your class through the ins and outs of designing a great project. Students will receive tips and tricks on how to select meaningful topics, do research, and create simple but thought-provoking presentations. Your students' participation and research will become an adventure in learning. Completed projects may be showcased at school, presented to our volunteer judges, or enrolled in the BC Heritage Fair program (www.bcheritagefair.ca).

Offered: Wednesday – Friday afternoons, mid-October – mid-November; mid-February – mid-April.
