AT THE COMMUNITY HISTORY CENTRE

Archival Research 101 Secondary Level

Are you tired of reading student research papers based entirely on internet sources? This program will help students develop historical research skills that utilize both primary and secondary sources. Along with a 'behind the scenes' look at North Vancouver's archives, students will analyze original photographs and documents, assess the reliability of sources, and gain practical experience in accessing archival information.

Location: Community History Centre, 3203 Institute Road

Offered: Thursdays and Fridays, October to early May

Time: 9:30 am – 11:45 am, one hour programs available

Fee: $40.00. Pay by credit card, cheque or cash.

Booking Information:

A maximum of 30 students is permitted per session.

At the time of booking: please advise if you have any special needs students and if you require an invoice.

The teacher must be accompanied by 1 adult who will assist with supervision. All bookings are on first-come, first-served basis. There is a waiting list. One week's cancellation notice is required or a $40 fee will apply.
